

Love Birds

Lovebird is the name given to species of parrot that display deep loving feelings and look after their mates. They form very strong relationships with members of their flock, which is why they are named so. They are also very friendly to humans who display loving care towards them. This paper craft is of a pair of rosy-faced lovebirds, one of the most common species of lovebird, sitting nicely together on a tree branch.

Assembly Instructions

- 1) Carefully cut out the parts.
